

Sexual Harassment Awareness e-learning with SSG

Introduction

From October 2024, all UK employers have a legal duty to take reasonable steps to prevent sexual harassment in the workplace. One important measure towards achieving compliance is training.

This course provides an engaging platform to discuss real-life workplace scenarios, whilst giving staff the knowledge they need to not fall foul of the rules of the Worker Protection Act.

Course Duration

SSG offer this e-learning course over one hour.

Delegates will be given a 6 month licence upon first access, in which to complete the course. Once this licence expires, delegates will be required to pay a fee to reactivate it and must contact our Customer Service Team for more information.

Course Attendees

This course is suitable for both employers and employees.

Course Programme

- What is harassment?
- What is sexual harassment?
- When does banter turn into harassment?
- How does it impact on victims?
- Boundaries
- How to raise concerns

Training Certification and Assessment

Delegates' knowledge and understanding will be tested through a short knowledge check at the end of the course. Those who pass will receive an SSG certificate.
